[month, day, year]

Dear Ms. Jackson,

I've been featured in numerous independent films across a wide range of genres throughout my acting career. My performance in the lead role as Anna in Robert Grayson's debut film, "Searching for Eurydice," was highly regarded by critics for the emotional nuance I brought to the part. I am confident my experience within the independent film circuit will aid the success of your new film.

The impressive writing and directing style of your independent film, "The Song of Sorrow," is what drives me to audition for your new production. I believe that my acting style and film experience make me an ideal fit for this project based on my career accomplishments:

- Received a nomination for best lead actress from the Independent Spirit Awards for performance as Anna in "Searching for Eurydice"
- Nominated for best supporting actress from the Independent Spirit Awards for the role of Harriot in Lisa Goldman's production of "Last Light in the West"
- Achieved recognition for supporting role as Claire in Christine Morrison's drama film, "My Night with Lya," which aired on the Sundance Channel

I would like to schedule an audition to show further how my expertise as an independent film actress can benefit your new project. Feel free to contact me via phone or email at your convenience. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Stella Cortez
